

Table 19-B
(continuation)

(16) C 1273-1619. Hapsburg Empire. Renaissance in Europe, revival of antique themes. End of chronicle C₂	(16) P 962-1250. Holy Roman-German Empire. Much information. German emperors in Roman Empire. "Double Empire"	(16) P 962-1250. Holy Roman-German Empire. Much information. Start of authentic history
(17) 333-year shift can possibly be explained by writing dates like "3rd year since Maximilian" as "MCL. IIP", i.e., "Maximus Caesar Leo". Spelling this out, we obtain 1153 A.D., which differs from actual date 1496 by 343 years. Recall that Maximilian I ruled in 1493-1519	(17) T 1250-1268. War in Italy. Fall of Hohenstaufen. Fall of Troy and Naples. Substantial data	(17) T 1250-1268. War in Italy. Fall of Hohenstaufen. Fall of medieval Troy and Naples. Substantial data
(18) C 1273-1619. Hapsburg Empire. Chronologists I. Scaliger and D. Petavius in 16-17th cc. Dionysius Petavius is original of Dionysius Exiguus (6th c.). Start of authentic history	(18) C 1273-1619. Hapsburg Empire. Council of Trent at which global chronology and Canon of Bible were created	(18) C 1273-1619. Hapsburg Empire. Council of Trent at which global chronology and Canon of Bible were created