

Figure 122. Individual latitudinal deviations in Tycho Brahe's star catalogue (for optimal values of the parameters)

Thus:

1. Tycho Brahe's catalogue does not contain any systematic errors (i.e., $\beta = \gamma = 0$)
2. Our method gives us a date for the observations which is practically the same as the traditional date of 1580 A.D.